U. S. TROOPS ORDERED TO CROSS LINE

PERSHING'S ARMY TO GET LARGE REINFORCEMENT.

CARRANZISTAS MASSING FUNSTON WILL VISIT FIELD HEADQUARTERS IN MEX.

COLUMBUS, N. M., April 28.—Marching orders were received today by approximately one-half of the number of soldiers on station here. These troops, largely cavalry, will probably cross the border to reinforce General John J. Pershing late this afternoon.

FIELD HEADQUARTERS, NAMIQUIPA, April 28.—(Wireless to Columbus, N. M.)—Numbers of Carranzistas, which had been withdrawn, returned today to points in the field south of Guerrero. The ostensible purpose of this new movement, it was said, was to prevent a combination of the adherents of Carranza and Villa factions against the Americans.

It is known that some agitators have been exhorting the populace of this section to resist the American troops and Colonel George A. Dodd, recently discovered the sentiment of the people to be very bitter.

FUNSTON GOING TO FRONT.

San Antonio Conference Field Headquarters to be Visited.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, April 28.—Army officers here believe Major General Funston will visit the field headquarters of the American forces in Mexico following the conference in Juarez with General Obregon, Carranza minister of war.

Before leaving for El Paso, General Funston expressed a desire to inspect the troops and he may make the trip if affairs of the southern department of the army will permit.

EL PASO, Texas, April 28.—General Alvaro Obregon, minister of war of the Mexican de facto government is in Juarez today awaiting to confer with Major General Scott and Funston on the military questions that are involved in the American punitive expedition into Mexico.

General Obregon accompanied by General Jacinto Trevino, military governor of Chihuahua, General Samuel S. Santos, Governor Enriquez, of Chihuahua and President Jose De Luis Herrera, of Parral, reached Juarez on a special train this morning.

The third section of General Obregon's train bearing General Luis Gutierrez, military governor of Chihuahua state, was derailed south of Juarez and several passengers were reported injured. It is not known whether General Gutierrez was hurt.

General Obregon reached Juarez on the second section of the special train.

Generals Scott and Funston are due to reach here tonight when it is expected that arrangements will be made for the first conference to be held in Juarez tomorrow.

The Mexican minister of war held several conferences today with the military and civil officers of the de facto government of Chihuahua in which every phase of the situation was discussed so that the presentation of the Mexican proposals could be made to Generals Scott and Funston.

General Obregon made it clear that the Carranza government was in position to thoroughly police northern Chihuahua and that the American troops having fulfilled their announced purpose of breaking up the Villa bands, should withdraw.

All Juarez turned out to make General Obregon and his party welcome. Troops lined both sides of Calle Comercio. The Juarez military band played its liveliest airs.

General Gabriel Gavira, commander of Juarez with his staff and Andres Garcia, Mexican consul to El Paso officially welcomed General Obregon.

CARRANZA FORCES MASSING.

40,000 De Facto Troops Assembled at Mexican Border.

EL PASO, Texas, April 28.—The protective presence in northern Mexico of 40,000 Carranza troops will be the most potent argument brought to the border today by General Alvaro Obregon, Mexican secretary.

TELEGRAPH TIPS

BOWLING GREEN.—William Schler of Maumee, found guilty by a jury yesterday afternoon on a charge of manslaughter, was this morning sentenced to serve from one to twenty years in the penitentiary. Schler's machine hit 8-year-old Raymond Pratt at Perryburg, last October. The boy died from his injuries. It was claimed by the state that Schler was driving at a fast rate of speed and was negligent of the safety of others. Jury at previous trial disagreed.

COLUMBUS.—Auditor of State Donahy today asked Attorney General Turner for a ruling as to whether Representative John A. Mansfield of Jefferson county is legally entitled to draw his 1915 salary in view of the fact that he was absent from the legislative session practically all the time. The members receive $1,000 a year. The auditor says that the house journal shows that he was only absent with leave, on one day, January 4, when he was excused for illness.

CINCINNATI.—Peremptory orders to tear down a score of buildings in Cincinnati will probably follow a tour of the western section of the city today by Building Inspector George Rodgers, Assistant State Fire Marshal John L. ## FOURTH DISTRICT SITUATION AGAIN FINDS INTEREST

Congressional Race is Unchanged by Spring Primaries.

GOEKE STILL SILENT

New Developments Not Expected Until He Discloses Plans.

[By David W. Bowman]

Renewed interest in the congressional situation has appeared since the primary Tuesday, partially because of the fact that there is now no event of political importance intervening before the date of filing and partially, too, on account of the fact that the alternateship in the Fourth district was the objective of about the only contest on the democratic primary ballot. Former Attorney General Frank S. Monnett's attempt to elect himself as an anti-Wilson candidate failed to attract enough attention outside of Cincinnati to be of importance, and in that city it was merely a local dissipation with Atlee Pomerene. Hence the Binkley-McGriff contest was the only one to draw interest, and not much at that outside of the circle which makes political gossip a food and a beverage.

To many observers the situation is unchanged by that fight. Despite the attempts in some quarters to connect that vote with the congressional situation the leaders of both factions steered clear of that result, so the fact that McGriff was a Cunningham adherent has no bearing on the status quo and the cause belli. The contest was a local test of prestige and cannot be linked with the congressional fight, if there is to be a fight on any sound basis. The obvious conclusion is that the game of battle is in the hands of J. Henry Goetze, no matter what his strength or weakness may be. He may or may not be formidable, and that question only the future can tell, but it is a cinch that with Cunningham in the list no candidate is going to announce until the intentions of the Wapakoneta barrister are known. Who wants to be a buffer between the forces which battered each other two years ago? With "Dick" and Henry holding two assumedly strong rival camps, what is left for the third man, should one appear? That is the question which confronts all aspirants, and although there is an undercurrent of sentiment in favor of eliminating both the Bluffton and Wapakoneta candidates in the interest of harmony it has not yet become strong enough to justify the entrance of a third candidate.

This attitude leaves the situation just where it was a month ago—watchful waiting. Cunningham has announced his readiness to meet all comers, and no comers are liable to come until J. Henry lets out his plans. He is taking his own sweet time about it and doesn't seem half as irritated as others who would like to know about his intentions.

There are indications, however, that Goetze intends to run. This morning's Enquirer carried a Washington dispatch stating that he had been retained as treasurer of the democratic national congressional.

'IRISH-AMERICAN' JOURNALS PROBED

Federal Attorney is After Papers Attacking President.

NEW YORK, April 28.—An investigation was begun today at the office of the United States district attorney to determine whether a crime had been committed by persons responsible for attacks on President Wilson and the national administration that have appeared in Irish-American papers published here since the outbreak of the revolution in Dublin. Copies of these editorials will be examined, it was said by one of the assistant district attorneys who has been prominent in the investigation of alien conspiracies.

The attention of the federal authorities was first aroused by an editorial statement that information which led to the sinking of the German ship which attempted to land arms and ammunition on Irish soil came from a member of the Washington administration "on the orders of President Wilson." This declaration has been authoritatively denied in Washington.

Dublin Postoffice Seized By Rebels, and Irish Plotter

The postoffice in Dublin, indicated by the arrow, was seized by a mob. The picture shows a scene on O'Connell street, with the statue of Daniel O'Connell. Sir Roger Casement, on whose head the British placed a reward of $25,000, was caught off the Irish coast as he tried to land with Germans from a German ship. The outbreak of the Dublin mob, coincident with his capture, was evidently a part of his plan. The photograph of him was taken while he was at dinner in Munich with St. John Gaffney, American consul there, who came back recently.

POLICE NEGLECTED TO HEED REPEATED CALLS, IS CLAIMED

North Main Street Citizens Say Department Ignored the Telephone.

Boarder and Landlord Battle All Morning Before Help Comes.

How three hours were spent in getting police protection for two women besieged by an infuriated man under the influence of liquor, within a short distance of the center of the city, and how the police authorities refused during that time to respond to repeated summons for aid is a theme of warm discussion among residents near the Deisel-Wemmer factory. Witnesses and participants in a siege lasting an entire morning vouch for the details.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkerson reside at 452 North Main street. They have several roomers and boarders, among those of the past few weeks, a middle-aged Kentuckian who gave his name as Will Allen, who beats carpets and helps housewives in cleaning house. Until Wednesday evening he has been rated a perfect gentleman of becoming conduct. At that time, however, Allen loaded up on potent beverages and started out to make trouble.

With an assorted cargo of choice drinks aboard, the Kentucky boarder entered the Wilkerson home Wednesday evening and began to yell and sing in his room. When Wilkerson attempted to pacify him a fight ensued, after which Allen threatened to kill the landlord. The latter stretched him across his bed and allayed him for the night.

Thursday morning Allen rose early and finished his quart of rye. As soon as he came down stairs he began to curse Mrs. Wilkerson and her daughter, Mrs. Henry B. Yeakum, of 1030 North Main street, threatening to kill Wilkerson on his return. The language which he employed led Mrs. Yeakum to call up police headquarters from the

PASSING OUT PASSES ADMITTED BY SOLONS

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 28.—Seventeen members and former members of the Tennessee legislature testified here at an interstate commerce commission investigation that they had received and distributed to constituents thousands of passes given by the Louisville and Nashville, the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis, the Tennessee Central and other railroads in the state. The inquiry, directed at determining whether the Louisville and Nashville and connected roads have been guilty of corrupt practices, is being conducted by the commission in response to a resolution adopted by the United States senate.

MAKING IT SAFE TO VISIT OLD NEW YAWK

NEW YORK, April 28.—A number of arrests are expected here soon in a police campaign to break up gangs of blackmailers who have been preying upon wealthy visitors. Police Commissioner Woods said today that his investigation had been proceeding for several months and action might be expected in the near future.

A rich harvest reaped by the blackmailers is attributed to recent prosperous times which have brought thousands of well-to-do business men to New York. The typical blackmailing gang is described as including two men and two women. The women make the acquaintance of prosperous victims and the men pose as detective and lawyer. The favorite scheme, the police say, has been to induce victims to give up money to escape threatened prosecution under the white slave law.

TEN PER CENT ADVANCE.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 28.—An advance of ten per cent in the wages of the 6,000 operatives in cotton mills controlled by B. B. and P. Knight in this state, was announced today.

GERARD CALLED TO GERMAN FRONT TO TALK WITH KAISER

Diplomatic Circles Contend of Change in Sea Warfare.

Teuton Emperor's Action is Unusual on Part of Kings.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Dispatches received at the German embassy today from the Berlin foreign office indicate that Germany will attempt to meet the American demands for the immediate abandonment of its present practice in submarine warfare. The nature of the proposals was not disclosed.

Count Von Bernstorff has not been advised whether the suggestions he recently made to his government at the invitation of the foreign office have been adopted. He expects additional dispatches.

A visit of Ambassador Gerard to Emperor William was a topic of broad interest in official and diplomatic quarters today. German embassy officials believed the emperor invited Mr. Gerard to confer with him for the purpose of elaborating, for the benefit of President Wilson, his position and the position of the German government in further explanation of certain phases of the forthcoming German reply to the American note. It would be unusual for the emperor to conduct negotiations directly with the diplomatic representative of a foreign government.

BATTLESHIP OF BRITAIN GOES DOWN

GERMAN SUBMARINE SUNK OFF ENGLISH COAST.

MORE RUSSIANS IN WEST

LONDON PRESS BLAME CABINET FOR THE IRISH CRISIS.

Naval events are again to the front in the war news with today's announcement that the British battleship Russell has been sunk in the Mediterranean by striking a mine and that a German submarine has been sent to the bottom by the British off the English coast.

There were more than 800 men on board the Russell and about 124 are missing.

Eighteen men on the German submarine were captured.

The Russell was comparatively an old vessel, having been completed in 1913. She displaced 14,000 tons and her heavy guns were four of the 12-inch type. She is the eleventh British battleship to be lost during the war.

Another contingent of Russian troops has reached Marseilles for service on the western front. This makes the third contingent whose arrival the French military authorities have permitted to be reported. As in previous instances, the strength of the contingent is withheld, but news dispatches from Marseilles have estimated a belief that as many as 250,000 Russian troops would probably be transferred this spring to the Franco-Belgian front.

For the first time in many days the French official statement mentions no notable activity, even by the artillery, in the Verdun region. Only an intermittent bombardment in the vicinity of Avocourt and Esnes, to the west of the Meuse, is recorded.

Along the rest of the French front there were no events of importance. German efforts for the present seem to be directed against the British along the line in Northern France and Belgium, where London last night reported activity that seemed to observers there to indicate that the Germans might be about to launch an offensive as determined as that directed against Verdun.

Ambassador Gerard left Berlin last night for German army headquarters where he will have an audience with Emperor William, who with his advisers, is considering the reply to the American note on submarine warfare.

PARIS, April 28.—A Havas despatch from Marseilles reports the arrival there of a further contingent of Russian troops the number of which is not given.

The Russians reached Marseilles this morning, the despatch says, disembarked immediately. They were received with the same military and civil honors as were accorded the previous Russian detachments and were cheered by the people as they marched to Camp Mirabeau. They will be sent in a few days to Camp Mailly.

LONDON PRESS SEES CRISIS.

Irish Situation Claims British Attention Above All Else.

LONDON, April 28.—The morning newspapers virtually all speak of the situation which has arisen in parliament through the unfavorable reception of the withdrawal of the government's military service bill as a new political crisis. The Daily News lobby correspondent says:

"The incident shows it is useless for sections of the ministers to agree on a compromise if they have not secured the consent of their respective supporters. The cabinet was deluded by the secret sessions and assumed that because the plan was not upset then, it would afterwards receive the assent of the house."

Dealing with the Irish situation the Daily Chronicle urges the government against the adoption of too harsh measures, adding:

"The immediate military situation ought not to present great difficulties. Indeed it is not easy to understand how the Sinn Feiners have been able to hold out for days in Dublin. We should have thought that all military arguments would favor crushing the movement in the capital with the utmost rapidity, for every day that it protracts its theatrical resistance must add to the risk of its finding imitators elsewhere.

"We hope there will be a prompt and honest inquiry into the motives of the rebels and the best means for bringing them back to their senses. A commission composed of acknowledged Irish leaders to assist in dealing with the rebels and negotiate their surrender might be of great service."

ATHENS, April 28.—An impartial observer who has just returned from a tour of all the mainland of Greece reports an amazing spread of sentiment in favor of Elliptherios Venizelos, the former premier, even in conservative Peloponnesus. The great efforts of the government to suppress the demonstrations and meetings of the Venizelos adherents has awakened deep resentment among the people and there is a growing determination to oust the present government even if it be necessary to resort to arms.

The Associated Press learns from unaccountable authority that several leaders of the revolution of 1909 are actively engaged in planning similar attempt although Venizelos deprecates this and advises instead the practice of patience and use of legal methods. On the other hand, the recent plot against him failed only by a hair's breadth, owing to the extraordinary devotion and watchfulness of his followers.

The weakness of the opponents of the former premier lies in the discontent among the rank and file of the army who largely attend the meetings of the Venizelos followers and who are openly dissatisfied and declare that a purposeless mobilization is depriving their families of support. It is stated in well-informed quarters that so many soldiers have returned to their homes without permission that the general staff is unable to treat them as deserters and is obliged to grant them leave which they already have taken.

Neutral diplomatic observers who are in a position to judge declare that the present situation cannot last 60 days longer and that unless an allied offensive against Bulgaria relieves the tension by sweeping the Greeks into war with their ancient enemies, a political cataclysm in Greece is inevitable.

A most rigid, triple censorship of all press telegrams keeps the world generally ignorant of exact conditions in Greece.

FOURTH DISTRICT OUTLOOK BEGINS TO FIND INTEREST

committee, which conducts the campaign for the control of that body. Now this job has always been given to a congressman. In fact, it is decidedly unusual for a civilian to be offered a place on the committee. Goeke was treasurer two years ago, and it may be that his retention, despite his defeat in 1914, is an indication that his friends at Washington are expecting him to return March 4, 1917, with proper credentials of a congressman in his inside vest pocket.

Other indications are not lacking, although proof of their validity is difficult to obtain. Two years ago a few of the Cox leaders managed to get crosswise in several congressional fights, including that in the Fourth, but the report in Columbus is that Cox has made peace with Goeke. If he didn't know in 1914 what harm a few of his managers did his cause by interfering in factional affairs he knows it now, and it is a pretty good bet that he will not let them mix up in any other than the gubernatorial campaign.

A third indication which may be said to bear on the intentions of J. Henry is his election last Tuesday as a delegate to the state convention. There one meets politicians from all over the state, including the leaders, and it is a good place to get an earful of live dope.

Whatever he may or may not decide to do, the anxiety around the district remains—that is, with those who cherish hopes of running. That several want to enter in case Goeke doesn't is no indication that Cunningham is weak, for the votes are cast at the end, not at the beginning, of the campaign. But it does mean that until the Wapakoneta man breaks the silence which characterizes the banks of the Anguize, no noise is apt to disturb the sleep of the voters, who really don't care about having a campaign any longer than necessary anyhow. That's why we say it's up to Goeke whether or not the Fourth district will have one or two or a flock of congressional candidates.

The Washington dispatch printed in this morning's Enquirer is appended.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—J. Henry Goeke, Wapakoneta, has been retained as Treasurer of the Democratic Congressional Committee. He came to Washington this week to consult with Representative Doremus, Chairman of the committee, about turning over to the new committee the funds and paper in his possession. Although Goeke is not a member of Congress at present Doremus declined to accept his resignation.

So far as known this is the first instance in which a private citizen has been retained as an official of the Congressional Committee, which is composed exclusively of members of the two Houses. Mr. Goeke's friends regard his retention as a unique honor.

Since N. W. Cunningham announced his candidacy for Congress on the Democratic ticket in the Fourth District, Goeke, it is known, has been watching the effect of the announcement with considerable interest. There is a strong impression here that Goeke will get into the race himself if his friends advise him that there is a party demand for his candidacy. Mr. Goeke declined to discuss his candidacy.

GERARD CALLED TO GERMAN FRONT TO TALK WITH KAISER

given out regarding the purpose of Ambassador Gerard's journey, it is evident that Emperor William wishes a thorough personal talk with him in order to obtain a clearer view of the American position on the submarine issue.

The ambassador and Secretary Grew travelled in a special saloon car attached to a regular train placed at their disposal. Mr. Gerard was attended by the embassy's chauffeur. The train will reach its destination at 7 p. m., tomorrow (Friday) and Ambassador Gerard expects to return on Saturday.

The invitation to visit the German headquarters was brought to the ambassador personally by Foreign Minister Von Jagow.

The invitation is regarded in financial circles as a good omen. Nevertheless, experienced observers consider the situation still very serious and believe that the mere fact of the ambassador's meeting with the emperor and his advisers is of less importance than what was done at the conference at German headquarters. The ultimatum decision at Washington is held to be quite incalculable until it is known how far Germany meets American wishes.

The news that Ambassador Gerard was going to the headquarters was already known at noon today but the censors, for some mysterious reason, refused to allow cablegrams to be sent announcing that fact until tonight, just as they had refused despatches with news that the American note had been handed to the foreign office until the next day.

OVERLAND CO. STOCK RAISED TO $50,000

The capital stock of the Lima Overland company on East Market street has been increased from $10,000 to $50,000. The increase was made necessary because of the construction of the new home of the company on the site formerly owned by the Business Women's club.

The head of the concern stated today that work on the new structure would be commenced as soon as the old building on the lot is torn down. When completed the garage will consist of a two-story brick structure and will be one of the most modern equipped in the state.

FORMER SALOON KEEPER HELD FOR BOOTLEGGING

Ell Breathtinger, former saloon proprietor, was arrested yesterday by Constable Counsellor on a warrant sworn out by State Liquor Traffic Inspector J. B. Galloway. When arraigned in the court of Justice on the charge of selling intoxicating liquor without a license, he entered a plea of not guilty and the trial was set for next Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

According to Galloway a number of other arrests will be made within a short time. He stated that investigations in this city disclosed that fact in addition to violations of proprietors of some saloons, a number of cases of bootlegging had been discovered. It is the intention of the state liquor license commission to bring all of the offenders to the liquor laws before the court of justice, he says.

LEVI HETRICK, PIONEER LOCKSMITH SUCCEUMBS

Levi Hetrick, 74 years old, builder of the Hetrick block, next to the Western Ohio station, on West Market street, and for years lock and gunsmith of the city, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Caroline Harrier, of 618 West Wayne street, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Death was due to paralysis, with which he was stricken three weeks ago. He was unmarried.

He was born in Perry county, Ohio, December 31, 1841, and came to Lima from Warsaw, Ind., about 40 years ago. For many years his lock and gun shop was located on North Main street, but of later years he has operated the business on East Wayne street, retiring only a few years ago when his health began to fail.

He was a member of the Calvary Reformed church and took a wide interest in affairs of the parish while the church was located at Park and High streets. Besides the sister, two brothers, John Hetrick of Newark and Noah Hetrick of Ada, are left.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of the sister, conducted by the Rev. W. A. Alspach, his pastor. The body will be laid to rest finally in the mausoleum at Woodlawn.

QUAINT OLD DRAMA IS AT THE ORPHEUM

Chet Keyes Stock Players Present "Quincy Adams Sawyer."

"Quincy Adams Sawyer," the quaint but ever-welcome drama of New England life is presented at the Orpheum theater the last half of the week by the Chet Keyes players. The second production of the stock company conclusively proves that they are deserving of the reputation they have established in presenting stock plays.

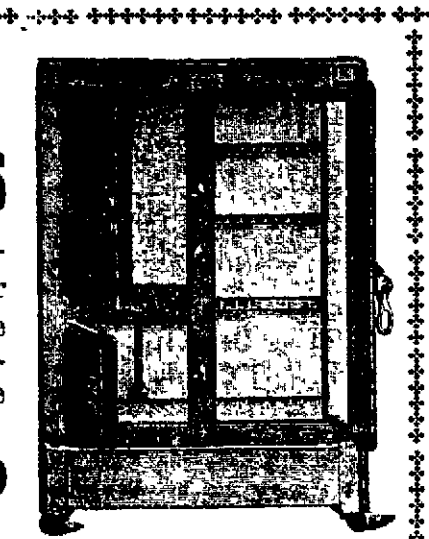

Chet Keyes, as Hiram Maxwell and Dot Keyes, as Samantha I. Skinner are the fun-makers of the production. As both of them are natural comedians, the amusing incidents of the play are very numerous. In fact they seem to amuse the members of the company as well as the audience, because of the original humor they inject in their lines.

The story centers around the parentage of Lindy Putman, played by Hazel Wilde. She is rescued from the wreck of a steamer and is brought up by Mrs. Putman. Although the latter knows that she is a legitimate child, she keeps the secret to herself because her son left

A JOB FOR TEDDY
Theodore Roosevelt, like the ex-presidents of the past, dreams it his work to serve the rest of his days as general adviser to the American nation. If he stopped there it would be all right, but he also believes that he is divinely delegated to be president. Unlike Taft, who has led a quiet, dignified life since his involuntary abdication in 1913, he has been fit to discover rivers and new birds reported more than a century ago, and to trot about denouncing all whose successes have overshadowed his own. Against all who achieve anything like national popularity, he huris "the spear that knows no brother."

Most of the ex-presidents have retired from public life after their terms in Washington, although they have occasionally expressed their views on public questions as though they had been called upon to do so. Not so with T. R. No quiet nook for him. He appears intent upon blasting by excessive statements the monument which would have been his in the hall of fame. What to do with him has become a problem.

There are several things which he could do to be "heroic." There is a Japanese invasion in the Hearst papers which he could repel with his trusty typewriter. Hearst has his yellow peril invading the nation in a dozen cities every 24 hours, and the colonel could do the United States a great service by routing the sons of Nippon from the sanctum of the sensationalist. He might prove the only real yellow peril to be the saffron press of Hearst and Brisbane.

Then there is the Mexican middle. Roosevelt boasts that no party should nominate him for the presidency "unless it has something of the heroic in its makeup." Judging from his rabid utterances the colonel could subdue Mexico single-handed, bring Villa to justice, force Oregon to behave, rout the Zapata brothers in a day, corral the Yaquis and force Felix Diaz to forego his numerous conspiracies.

A third possibility is the Panama Canal. Here the despoiler of Colombia ought to shine. William Nelson Cromwell, who started the Panama revolution, is still in Wall Street, while Charles P. Taft might forgive the Roosevelt - Robinson crowd for the treachery of 1912, especially if there were another chance to balk the United States government. The present task would be in the stopping of the slides. Any man who can dethrone the world's greatest naturalists, revise natural history and decide the North Pole controversy, should find it easy to prevent mountains from falling down into the Culbra Cut.

There are infinite possibilities in Europe today. The colonel could show the kaiser how to take Verdun in a day, for did he not take San Juan Hill? Correct—he did not. He was 12 miles away at El Caney, according to the records, but why bother about such a little thing as the truth? With a reputation as a hill stromer behind him he could offer his services to the crown prince and take Dead Man's Hill on one charge. Or if his anti-German tendencies prevented taking charge of the campaign of the central powers, Teddy could assume control of the English army in Ireland, knocking out the Sinn Fein and Clan-na-Gael forces in a morning. Did he not stop the panic of 1907?

But between hunting big game, hunting "a thing cup of coffee" and hunting publicity, Roosevelt has passed the stage of helping others. His aim is to help one T. Roosevelt, Esquire, of Oyster Bay, county of Nassau, state of New York, ss. His hunting will be done in the United States, and the smallest thing he will consider before he runs for the post of general manager of all creation and first chief of the universe will be a new term in the White House. the cheques to underwrite his candidacy, and although the owners of Ford's turned out to defeat him in Nebraska, Massachusetts and New Jersey, there are forty-odd other states which may still have in their makeup "something of the heroic."

A SNAP PRIMARY

From all quarters of the state come reports of light voting in the Tuesday primary. Every exchange announces that the percentage was too small to be even a criterion of opinion. Interest is too low to bring an appreciable portion of the voters to the polls and the cost of the election remains constant.

Less than 1,000 votes were polled in Auglaize county. Mercer county spent $1,500 staging an election to which 15 per cent of the voters were attracted. In Piqua the cost of the primary officials averages $33 per precinct, and in all 13 the expense totalled $429. The rent and light raised the cost of the city primary to $650, or one dollar per vote.

In Logan county the cost was even more. The expenses will run between $1,500 and $2,000, with only 1,334 votes cast. Two years ago there were 4,600 Republican, 2,300 Democrats and 500 Progressives, or almost 7,500 in all. In Darke county between 15 and 20 per cent of the voters responded. Both counties had precincts in which no votes were cast, even election officials refusing to vote.

If this is the presidential preference primary for which may self-appointed reformers clamored, give us the old-fashioned convention. A primary without a majority vote out should not control the verdict. It is true that the absence of contests cut down the percentage, but the freakish law passed by the Willis legislature, the red tape form arranged by the secretary of state and a few assinine legal rulings by the attorney general's office have made it difficult to get candidates for delegate and alternate. A contemporary announces that time is ripe for a fool-killer to go to Columbus with an axe, and sometimes we feel like seconding the motion.

Richard Olney, Cleveland's secretary of state, and the nation's greatest living authority on international relations, endorses the Wilson ultimatum to Germany by saying that the president could have done no less and still preserve national honor. Olney went through the Venezuela crisis and with Cleveland pulled the biggest bluff in the history of the United States. It worked, and his endorsement will outweigh the criticism of both rabid militarists and cringing pacifists.

Roosevelt says that he and his five sons and either one or both of his sons-in-law will fight for the nation when called. If he means Nick Longworth, our guess is that Nick would be of more service at home and out of the way.

Warren G. Harding deprecates his presidential boom. He needn't bother about that—it will be deprecated in plenty of time if it assumes such proportions as to be noticeable.

MILE. RITA JOLIVET, one of the survivors of the Lusitania disaster, after a sojourn abroad, has returned to America with a husband and has signed a contract to appear in motion pictures for Oliver Morozco.

Few knew of her marriage, so well had the secret been guarded. Her matrimonial choice was Count De Crippico, the Italian horseman. The count is interested in the motion picture industry in Italy.

Although the subject in which Mile. Jolivet will make her initial screen appearance has not yet been made public it is understood that it will be one of George Broadhurst's recent stage successes.

GIRL PILOTS BOAT IN PETROVA PICTURE

Shipping men in the upper bay, New York, were surprised to see a beautiful young girl at the wheel in the plot house of a sea-going tug that picked its way to the Battery wall. All along the route they blew their whistles and sirens in salutation and the girl responded with short toots, as she was too busy at the wheel to devote much time in exchanging greetings.

The girl was Evelyn Brent, the pretty young ingenue, who is appearing in Metro plays and who, with several members of the Popular Players and Players, has been out to the lighthouse at Sandy Hook to make the final scenes for "Playing With Fire," in which Olga Petrova is starred.

On the return from Sandy Hook, Miss Brent asked permission to run the boat, assuring the captain that she could, as she knew everything about an automobile and motor boat. He agreed and she had the time of her life.

SAYS WE BECOME CRANKS ON HOT WATER DRINKING

Hopes Every Man and Woman Adopts This Splendid Morning Habit.

Why is man and woman, half the time, feeling nervous, despondent, worried; some days headachy, dull and unstrung; some days really incapacitated by illness.

If we all would practice inside-bathing, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of thousands of half-sick, anaemic-looking souls with pasty, muddy complexions we should see crowds of happy, healthy, rosy-cheeked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present mode of living. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out, else it ferments and forms ptomaine-like poisons which are absorbed into the blood.

Just as necessary as it is to clean the ashes from the furnace each day, before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's accumulation of indigestible waste and today's toxins. Men and women, whether sick or well, are advised to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Millions of people who had their turn at constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, nervous days and sleepless nights have become real cranks about the morning inside-bath. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will not cost much at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate to anyone, its cleansing, sweetening and freshening effect upon the system.

Florida. It's to be called "The Image Maker of Thebes." It is to follow her play, "Hidden Valley."

Vivian Martin, recently seen in Fox company plays, has signed a contract to appear in plays in the Paramount program. Her first film play, which was a great success on its release a year or so ago, was called "The Wishing Ring."

Says Lillian Gish of Dorothy Gish: "She has no sense of property rights. She looks well in that new hat of mine. So I'll give it to her. If I didn't, she would wear it anyway."

Indigestion and Constipation.

HEALTH HINTS
KEEP BABY COOL.
QUIET IN SUMMER

Summer complaint of cholera infantum kills thousands of babies every year. Hot weather is one of the most important causes of this complaint. Excessive heat, long exposure, profoundly affects the nerves. Puffiness (nervousness) always precedes attack of cholera infantum. Digestion is depressed by nervousness. Then if the child happens to overeat or be fed unwholesome food, it quickly develops the dread disease.

The ferments of microbes which always exist everywhere in everything, and which are unusually active in hot weather only wait for an opportunity to multiply and elaborate their poisonous products which cause cholera infantum and other dreaded diseases.

To prevent the disease keep the infant clean and cool by frequent bathing in tepid water. Give him plenty of cool boiled water to drink. Give considerable time and pains to this, for it probably will do away with the necessity of giving all your time, plus a great deal of anxiety, to an ill baby.

Too frequently infants do not have enough water to drink. They cry and are ill because of thirst. If the baby is fed at the breast, the mother should take the best care of herself.

The mother, too, should keep clean, cool and quiet. If the mother is worried, overheated, nervous, feverish or exhausted with work, her milk is unfit food. If it is given to the baby there will be two ill instead of one.

Every effort should be made to prevent the attacks by giving the child a light supper and plenty of fresh air at all times. The child should be warmly clad when out of doors. Especially the feet should be well protected and under no circumstances should the child be allowed to remain with wet or cold feet. Then watch for the first symptom, hoarseness, and give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy at once and the attack may be warded off. This remedy is a favorite with the mothers of croupy children and can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe to take. Obtainable everywhere. mo-wed-fri

GIRL BEHEADED IN CINCINNATI CRASH

She Was to Have Been Bridesmaid; Bride-to-be Also Injured.

CINCINNATI, April 28.—One woman was beheaded and 35 persons were injured when a crowded street car on the Vine-Burnet street line became unmanageable today and ran wild for six blocks down a steep grade, bringing up with shattering force against a telegraph pole.

Miss Carrie Stiller, 32, an attendant at the Cincinnati General hospital, the woman who was killed, was to have been a bridesmaid tonight at the wedding of Miss Carrie Geisler, who was with her on the car. Miss Geisler was badly hurt, but may recover. Miss Stiller's head was cut off by broken glass of a window. Doctors at hospitals where the wreck victims were taken, say 30 of the injured are in serious condition and many of them may die.

The car was inbound when the accident occurred. According to the statement made by Motorman Thos. Devanny to the police, failure of the brakes to work caused the crash.

The motorman said he noticed the brakes were out of order when he attempted to slow down the car to throw the switch at McKim street. The car refused to stop, he said, and despite his efforts, took the track into Highland avenue. A steep down grade begins at this point and the car began to gather momentum, while Devanny struggled desperately to set the useless brakes. The speed of the car increased rapidly as it sped down the hill.

The funeral of Mrs. Clara Stiller who was instantly killed will be held Monday morning.

City and traction experts made thorough examinations of the car and apparently it was in perfect order. "We haven't been able to ascertain the cause of the accident," said Vice-President Walter Draper of the traction company today. "An examination developed that the brakes were set, the air apparatus was intact, the sand box was in working order, the reverse mechanism was set and the track was in perfect shape. The car was practically new and not a thing apparently was out of order. Investigation shows that Motorman Devanny and Conductor Church did not lose their nerve and did everything possible to stop the car. Devanny has been in the service 25 years."

Grateful Mothers Tell Experiences

Mrs. T. Neureuter, San Clara, Wis., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar Compound cured my boy of a very severe attack of croup after other remedies had failed. Our milkman cured his children of whooping cough. I recommend it to every one, as we know from our own experience that it is a wonderful remedy for coughs, colds, croup, and whooping cough."

Mrs. D. Gilkerson, Fountaintown, O., writes: "My little girl had a severe cold and coughed almost continuously. I tried lots of cough remedies, but she didn't get any better. My sister recommended Foley's Honey and Tar Compound to me. The first dose I gave her relieved the inflammation in her throat, and after using one bottle the cough left her."

This sterling remedy has been in use for years and is just as efficient for adults as for children. It gives relief for irritated and tickling throat, tight and sore chest, grippe and bronchial coughs.

INFLUENCE OF SPRING

MOTHERS what does the spring time mean to you? Does it simply mean house-cleaning, new clothes for Mary and Johnnie, and yourself? Planting of a vegetable garden? It seems to me that this is the most wonderful time of the year. It is just the time to accomplish wonderful things. All mothers desire to give their children the best of life, but few mothers realize they are cheating "the children when they fail to point out the beauties of the spring. Mothers, make your children see the beautiful give them the life-long vision of happiness in all the things around them. Are you insensible to the delicate green tracery of the trees, the blue of the sky, the song of the bird, the dainty violets greeting, the very scent of spring? Sometime soon before it is too late stop the house-cleaning, the fussing of Mary's new school dress, and take your children for a long ramble out through the country. Every child loves a fantasy, and the opportunity to weave all the wonders and joys of nature into a beautiful and mystic fairy story is not to be overlooked if the mother will only seriously consider it. It is a deplorable thing for any man or woman not to remember marvelous tales of their youth and very, very often the beauty and illusion of some exquisite story is carried all through a life, which is made the happier by its influence. And nature stories are by far the most beautiful of all stories. Sometimes when I walk all by myself and look at the blue sky, the warm smile of the sun, hear the friendly whispering of the wind in the trees, who gently and gracefully wave their branches to me in greeting, my heart sings with the robin and my steps keep time with my heart, and I'm glad I'm alive. Then one by one the stories my Mother told me about the violets, the trees, the brook which bustles runs to the sea, the enchanting secrets of distant lands told by the winds, all come to my mind and give me a sense of security and contentment and a "God's in His Heaven, All's Right with the World" feeling.

Betty Bots of Botkins says: "Some folks dislike a mud puddle, but I have noticed that it reflects the sky, when you look down on it."

Cheer Up, DEARS. Preparedness counts in a spring like this.

Now that Shakespeare is being honored daily, the latest dinner cards are especially attractive, both to those who entertain and to those whose ability enables them to do decorative work. These cards come in sets. Each card is about four inches high and is drawn to represent a character from one of Shakespeare's plays: Macbeth, Titania, Puck, Malvolio, Othello. The outline is done in pen and ink work, and the figures in water colors. Each one is cut out and made to stand up with a small bristol board rest, pasted on the back. Beneath the feet of each figure is a scroll on which the name of the guest is to be written.

Music such as only the high school orchestra can give and a very attractive tea garden will be the chief inducements tonight of the open meeting of the Queen Esther Circle of the Trinity M. E. church. The meeting will be open to the public after 7:30 at the Trinity church.

MACAROONS.
One pound powdered sugar, 3-4 pound blanched, ground almonds, six to eight whites of eggs, vanilla. Mix the almonds with the whites of two eggs, add sugar, working it well together. Beat the rest of the whites of eggs to a stiff froth, add vanilla to flavor, then mix all well together. Pipe them on paper and sprinkle powdered sugar over it. Cook in moderate oven.

When cool, brush cold water on back of paper and the macaroons will detach themselves easily.

A MILLINERY FANCY.

Among artificial flowers, one that is being much chosen for trimming millinery is a rose whose center is formed of a cluster of tiniest ostrich tips of the same color as the blossoms, but of a slightly deeper tint. The outer petals of the rose are of silk and the general shape of the flower is that of the American Beauty. The rubber stems, foliage and bud are identical with those of the usual artificial flowers.

Guests were: Mrs. Ollie Burden, Mrs. Clarence John and Mrs. Walter Rusk. After a delicious lunch the club adjourned to meet again in two weeks with Mrs. Ralph Armstrong.

BAGDAD, IN THE BOY'S VISION

When the breeze of a joyful dawn blew free

In the slaken sail of infancy,
The tide of time flowed back with me
The forward-flowing tide of time:
And many a sheeny summer-morn
Adown the Tigrie I was borne,
By Bagdad's shrines of frotted gold,
High-walled gardens green and old;
True Musselman was I and sworn,
For it was in the golden prime
Of good Haroun Alraschid.

Often, where clear-stemmed platans guard
The outlet, did I turn away
The boat head down a broad canal
From the main river sluiced, where all

The sloping of the moonlit award
Was damask work and deep blay
Of braided blossoms unshown, which crept
Adown to where the water slept.
A goodly place, a goodly time,
Of good Haroun Alraschid.
—Tennyson "Recollections of Arabian Nights."

Resignation was tendered yesterday by Mrs. Edward R. Foster, president of the Shakespeare club. Mrs. Foster felt that she would be unable to carry on the splendid work she has been doing for the club and it was with much regret the club accepted the resignation. Mrs. George Quail, vice president, was chosen to fill the vacancy, and Mrs. Julia Simpson, was elected vice president. The meeting opened with Mrs. Foster giving a short talk on the Shakespeare Tercentenary, after which the 4 and 5 acts of the comedy "Much Ado About Nothing" were read. Reading was conducted by Mrs. W. E. Booth, others who took part were: Mrs. B. F. Welty, Mrs. Julia Simpson, Mrs. W. C. Bradley, Mrs. W. B. Kirk, Miss Mary Elder, Mrs. E. Owen, Mrs. D. H. Sullivan, Mrs. W. C. Bell, Mrs. Walton Clark and Mrs. McClain. Miss Winona Foster, Detroit, was guest at the meeting. The two amendments to the constitution regarding the election of members and the duties of members were accepted in club vote.

Arrangements were also made for the appearance in Lima of Mrs. Schuster-Martin, of Cincinnati, who will give a reading of the play, "The Son-in-Law of M. Polier," by Emile Augier. All members of the club, whether active, associate, affiliate or honorary, are invited to attend the reading and to bring three guests with them. A luncheon will be given at noon for Mrs. Martin at the Elks' home and all members of the club who may attend are asked to notify Mrs. Foster or Mrs. E. P. Stafford at once.

MOTHER OF FOUR CHILDREN

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Kept Her Well and Strong.

Lincoln, Illinois.—"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for ten years with good results and I have four healthy children. This summer I was in a very run down condition and the very hot weather seemed more than I could stand, but I commenced taking your Compound in June and from then until September 25th, when my last baby was born, I got along much better than I had before. My baby was a girl and weighed 14 pounds at birth, and I recovered very rapidly which I am sure was due to your medicine. I am well and strong now, nurse my baby and do all my work. I had the same good results with your medicine when needed before my other children came and they are all healthy. My mother has taken your medicine with equal satisfaction. She had her last child when nearly 44 years old and feels confident she never would have carried him through without your help, as her health was very poor."—Mrs. T. F. Cloyd, 1308 North Galick Ave., Decatur, Ill.

Pregnant mothers should profit by Mrs. Cloyd's experience, and trust to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Free confidential advice had by addressing Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Marrying for Mone Y

BY MRS. EVA LEONARD

Ortrude confided in Nell Her Determination to Live a Different Life.

"WELL, Mrs. Morton, I ran There was silence in the room in to say good-bye. All when Ortrude ceased speaking my packing is done. I Finally Nell said: have just seen the last box nailed for shipping. The help you; she has lived so nobly and up and tagged tomorrow learned so much. So many times house will be empty Ortrude said: Townsend sank when I am regretting something I wearily into the have done she says, 'Don't mourn easy chair Nell over what is past; that is yours no draw up for her longer. "I wish I knew her," said Ortrude after a pause. "I need someone strong and helpful to help me learn to live so that I shall not ruin any more lives." "It is only a few months, but it seems half a lifetime. When I handled the things I had selected so short a time ago—filled with such pride that I was to be mistress of a well-appointed home—when I handled them, I say, I wondered how many years had passed. I felt so old, so different." Ortrude leaned back wearily and closed her eyes.

"A change will be good for you. With new surroundings you will soon feel like yourself." Nell's tone was cheerful.

"I know what you think; that I have not suffered an irreparable loss as long as I cared so little for my husband." There was the old tone of the head that Nell had like so little in their first acquaintance. "But you do not understand what I mean. I do not see how I can tolerate life with myself since I have had a good view of myself and see how contemptible I am." Nell laughed, but Ortrude's face remained sober. "I have been thinking of something you said the first time we went riding together. You said, 'Anyone who is so self-centered as to push his own plans through with no consideration for anyone else is doing himself as well as everybody else an injury.' I realize how true that is and the injury was greater than I ready for truth I found it in some form, and when I needed help and ever dreamed it could be. And I must live with that knowledge all the rest of my life."

LETTERS FROM THE LOVELORN

Copyright 1916, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

I have been threatening for a long time to publish some of the letters, without betraying the names of the senders, that are mailed to me asking my advice on love, real and imaginary. Here comes the first letter, and it is only one of hundreds exactly like it: "Oh, Miss Pickford, will you please advise me what to do, as I am desperately in love with a man who does not even know I am in existence? He is a moving picture actor and for the last three years I have never missed going to see one of his pictures when it came to our town. "I think he is the handsomest man in the world, and because I am so crazy about him I have no time for the other boys who would be nice to me if I would let them. Do tell hundreds of others, as he is one of me what I should do? I have writ-screen. But do not be worried about your picture—it is a code among them that they protect even the most unwise.

This incident makes me think of a little story about a very dear friend of mine, an actress, who received a letter from just such a girl, asking similar advice. Knowing my friend was playing in the same company with the hero of her choice, the girl offered many bribes if she could only be introduced to this actress' leading man. Such a cunning little no-nonsense actress friend wrote back to her: "Indeed I am in a position to introduce you to Mr. So-and-So, as he and I have been married for the past five years."

Now comes a letter that to me is pathetic, from a man who signs himself "Sixty Years Old": "Last summer a moving-picture company came to our town to take pictures, and as I had a very pretty little farm I was only too glad to let them photograph it. One of the moving-picture actresses was so nice to me and when she went away promised to write. I have written to her and asked her to marry me, but I only have got a postal in return. Now I am quite lonely and discontented. Why were they so nice to me when they were here and treated me so badly when they went away?"

Romance is sweet when May meets May, but it is very seldom that May and December can be happy together, and while the actress may have been sincere in her liking for the kindly farmer, perhaps she never even thought of such a turn in the affair as matrimony. Too often do we confuse regard and sentiment, friendship and affection. And how many people are made unhappy just because they allow themselves to be discouraged in what promises to be an affair of the heart!

A very lovelorn young fellow, not a day over twenty-two, confided in me that he was in love with a woman of forty, and after he disclosed his secret inamorata I laughed at him, for she was the happy mother of three boys nearly as old as he.

Fie, for shame, on the schoolgirl or fourteen who writes to me, telling me she waits outside the theater every day for a glimpse of her matinee idol! Some day she will be mighty sorry she did not spend more time at books, for good looks soon die and if a girl isn't clever she cannot hope for many colorful romances.

Many girls write that they are secretly engaged and that they think it is much more romantic to keep it from their parents. One unhappy story I know about a girl who would elope always comes back to me and I think of it so often.

Her parents opposed her marriage, so they decided to elope, the girl climbing out of her window on a ladder which he had set against the side of the house. Something frightened her, she lost her balance and fell, so injuring her spine that she was forced to remain in bed the rest of her life—thirty-five unhappy, drab years of sorrow and suffering.

There are several more such letters which I am going to answer next week.

Answers to Correspondents

Rosalie King.—No, there is no book published which contains storyizations of the photoplays in which I have played.

J. L. D.—It would be hard for me to say whether I prefer to live in the country or the city. Both have so much charm for me that I like to be able to live in either as the mood moves me. However, my work really determines where I shall live.

Helen D.—Being a blond, I naturally admire brunettes most. I think there is nothing prettier than sleek hair, black as a raven's wing.

G. A. E.—Yes, peppermint is very good for neuralgia, but it affects some complexions and some skins very badly.

T. L. B.—I have never heard of a freckle cure that was permanent. They disappear for a short time and then return.

J. T. T.—No, indeed, I would not advise you to dye your hair black. Red hair, of the color of the lock you sent me, has been always considered peculiarly beautiful.

When she learns that her father is a gambler and that he has just been arrested for murder, she declines Stuyvesant's offer of marriage, but finally consents. Her father is sent to the penitentiary for ten years, and Ardini, the proprietor of the gambling house, is sentenced to three months. When the latter is discharged, he forces Mary, a chorus girl, to secure money from Jessie by threatening to reveal Mary's stage career and her father's disgrace. Jessie is killed in an automobile accident and Ardini wins Stuyvesant's friendship, and tells him that it is possible, through spiritualistic powers, to see his dead wife. Mary is to pose as Jessie. Jim goes to Spain and there becomes a noted physician, even curing his brother Jack of his deformity. A call comes for him from the United States. There he finds the deserting couple in the south. A WONDERFUL WATER
Clean You Inside as Soap and Water
Cleans Your Skin.

If the men and women of this country understood the importance of inside cleanliness what a bright and cheerful people we would be.

Constipation makes us nervous and depressed. You simply can't feel good when the bowels are clogged, because this waste that clogs them turns to poison, causing headaches, biliousness, foul breath and pimply, blotchy skin. Even the digestion gets upset because the fresh food becomes contaminated with this sour waste.

A little Tollo Water each morning before breakfast will carry off this waste by flushing the stomach and intestines in an easy, natural way and nature does the rest.

Don't take drugs that are habit-forming and expel the waste by violence. Go to your druggist today and get a bottle of Tollo Water, it only costs a trifle; before you eat breakfast tomorrow morning pour out about one-third of a tumbler of Tollo Water and fill with plain water—hot, if convenient—and drink it. Then eat your breakfast and enjoy it, because it will be going into a clean, refreshed stomach, ready to take up its work of extracting the nourishment and sending it to every tired nerve and muscle clean and wholesome.

Doctors send thousands of people to Dawson Springs, Kentucky, each year to drink this water. Talk to anyone who has been there. They will tell you it works wonders for tired, nervous, run-down people.

EMBARGO LEAGUE PLOTING, CHARGE

Senator Hustling Alleges
Peace Telegrams Meant to Deceive Congress.

CHICAGO, April 28.—J. H. Forrest, secretary of the American Embargo Conference, the organization which promoted the campaign to flood congress with thousands of telegrams urging that body to oppose any moves which would involve this country in war and which has opposed the shipment of arms to European belligerents, is in Chicago today, having come from New York. He has been in the east, he said, completing plans for the simultaneous sending of anti-war telegrams to Washington such as were sent from the middle west this week.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The American embargo conference, an organization with headquarters in Chicago was charged by Senator Hustling today with promoting a plot to deceive congress and poison public opinion by originating and paying for the propaganda which for several days has deluged senators and representatives with many thousands of telegrams protesting against any break between the United States and Germany. The Wisconsin senator read in the senate copies of letters sent to his constituents containing four form telegrams of protest like those received by congressmen and said the embargo conference would pay telegraph tolls on all such messages forwarded. He charged that the forms had appeared in advance and the conference had studiously awaited an opportunity to launch its propaganda when it might do most to convince the country that the present congress were bent on war.

Senators Sherman of Illinois and Pomerene of Ohio also denounced the propaganda but Senator Works of California criticized Senator Hustling for stirring up discussion of the subject. Although Senator Hustling advocated a congressional investigation of the conference, he introduced no resolution, and the debate ended without action.

POLICE THREATEN TO LEAVE WESTINGHOUSE

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 28.—Nine policemen making up the borough force at Wilmerding, where the Westinghouse Airbrake company's plant is closed because of the strike of electrical and munition workers in the Turtle Creek Valley, notified the chief of police, W. H. Gilland today, that they would resign unless the deputy sheriffs were removed. They said they had no objection to the deputies remaining at the works but they did not want them patrolling the town.

There was quiet in all the strike boroughs in the valley this morning strikers generally remaining off the streets with the exception of those detailed for picket duty. Their leaders claim they now have more than 30,000 workers out, and that many other trades will join them on Monday, all seeking the eight-hour day.

Reports that barbers and elevator operators had demanded shorter hours and higher wages further complicated the labor situation, but hope was still held out that the Pittsburgh Railway company operating all traction lines, would reach some agreement with their men before Sunday at midnight.

JUDGMENT ASKED.

The Allen County Savings and Loan Company today filed an action for judgment in the sum of $542.27 against Charles A. Mitchell and his wife Grace and Julia Simms and U. E. Brown, the latter two of whom have some claim on property given to secure a promissory note. The note was given April 3, 1913, for $100.

MINERS GET THE HOOK.

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., April 28.—Out of 1,000 California miners examined by state and federal sanitary inspectors approximately 40 per cent were found to be infected with hook worm, according to a preliminary report of an official survey of sanitary conditions in California mines. Both officials emphasized the fact that the hook worm can be eliminated through the adoption of proper sanitary methods in the mines.

U. S. TROOPS ORDERED TO CROSS LINE

General Carranza, in his effort to convince General Hugh L. Scott and Frederick Funston that the American expeditionary forces should be withdrawn from Mexican soil.

Mexican officials here believe that General Obregon will assure the Americans that when the last United States troops cross to the north of the international boundary the de facto army will form behind them a line of patrols that will render future bandit raids on the border impossible.

Added to this, they say, he will repeat the declaration he made at Chihuahua City that the chiefs of the constitutional cause are in perfect harmony and amply able to control the small bands of the bandits still at large.

There is no indication here as to what answer the Mexican minister of war will make to the apparent intention of the Washington government to maintain General Pershing's column in Chihuahua until such time as General Carranza's forces have proved their ability to wipe out the bandit menace.

It is pointed out, however, that it is unlikely he will take any action that would precipitate a bread with the United States, since intervention is said to be the last eventually desired by the Carranza adherents.

On the other hand, it is expected General Obregon will assert that the United States should hesitate about taking any step, such as leaving the troops in Mexico, that would endanger the stability of the de facto government, which Mexican officials contend, is slowly bringing order out of chaos in the devastated country.

REPUBLICAN RAW.

NEW ORLEANS, April 28.—A state convention of so-called "old line" Republicans, including negro voters, today selected D. A. Lines and Emilio Kuntz, white, and Walter Cohen and J. M. Vance, negroes, as delegates at large to the Chicago convention. They will contest the seating of delegates at large chosen at a previous convention of the "Lily-White" faction.

TEDDY'S MAN WINS.

TRENTON, N. J. April 28.—Complete but unofficial returns from Tuesday's presidential primary election in New Jersey indicate that William F. Cozart, colored, who favors the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt, was elected delegate to the republican national convention from the second congressional district.

defeated Richard More, unpledged, began here today with the avowed purpose of arousing enthusiasm for preparedness throughout the south. Several southern governors and leaders in educational work were expected to attend its sessions. Speakers on the list today included Alexander Graham Bell, the inventor.

BRINGING UP FATHER

Chicago Bunches Hits and Beats Cleveland Club

CLEVELAND, O., April 28.—Chicago bunched its hits off Mitchell yesterday and won 5 to 3. Faber was hit hard but hit support saved him from being scored on until the sixth, when Cleveland made its three runs on a hit, two passes, an error and a sacrifice fly. Faber again wavered in the eighth but Russell came to the rescue and stopped a rally. Shortstop Chapman of Cleveland, is out of the game with water on the knee. The Score:

Lewis Is Defeated By Graves

TOLEDO, O., April 28.—Kid Graves, Cleveland welter weight, gained the newspaper decision over George Lewis, local boxer, without any apparent exertion in their ten round fight here last night. The only fighting done by Lewis was that in the tenth frame when he had and earned an even break. Mickey Byrnes, Cleveland bantam, was given the decision in his round affair with George Adams, Chicago. Adams fought cleverly and cleanly; Byrnes was not so willing to fight clean. Chick Hayes, Indianapolis, and Chip Murphy local boy, weighing 122 pounds fought a fast ten-rounds to a draw. Hard blows were freely exchanged. Young Brown knocked out Jesse Reynolds in two rounds. Both are local fighters and weighed 148 pounds.

WASHING AND TIME OF SHEARING SHEEP

In an experiment conducted for three years, by the Ohio Experiment Station, it was found that unwashed sheep produced from 14 percent to 27 percent more grease wool than did washed sheep. The difference in shrinkage in scouring the wool produced in this experiment was great enough to indicate that it was washed and unwashed wools are bought on a basis of the amount of scoured wool they will yield, the sheep raiser does not receive a sufficient premium for washed wool to repay him for the cost of washing and for the loss in weight of fleece. Since washing sheep neither improves the quality or condition of the wool fiber, nor lessens the cost of scouring it, the practice has little to commend it.

Unwashed sheep shorn April 12 produced less grease wool but slightly more scoured wool than did those shorn June 1. The earlier shorn sheep also made larger gains. This fact, together with the other advantages of early shearing, would seem to offset the greater amount of wool produced by the late shorn sheep and to indicate that sheep should be shorn early enough to avoid hot weather in spring, particularly in case of sheep that are being fattened.

PHILIPPINE BILL TO PASS.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Democratic leaders of the house apparently were confident today of the passage of the Philippine Independence bill as a result of the action of the party caucus last night. The caucus, by a vote of 140 to 35, approved the senate bill, although it was agreed to permit an amendment in the house to the prohibition section of the measure.

The Reason Why Complete Dining Room Suite Should Appeal to You

Today, you realize that you should have your dining room look complete, and that to match the old is impossible. With the Complete Dining Room Suite that difficulty is done away with—the designs are correct, and the decorative scheme is perfectly carried out.

NATURAL GAS NEW
AUTOMOBILE FUELCompany Finds It Can be
Compressed in Steel Bottles.

FINDLAY, April 28.—The dream of the oil and financial men that natural gas will sometime be used to propel automobiles, seems not such a dream as it was thought at one time to be.

Natural gas is now being used in lighting Baltimore &amp; Ohio railroad coaches between Clarksburg and Fittsburg. It is used in cutting steel and now comes a report that it is being used to run automobiles.

With the use of steel bottles able to withstand a pressure of 1,500 pounds to the square inch, it appears the running of automobiles with gas is simply a matter of inventing a suitable mixer that will take the place of the carburetor and also provide a suitable means for shutting off the gas supply when the engine is not using the full flow.

There are a number of regulators that will cut down the pressure of the bottles but in engines run upon gas today, the valves of the machine are so arranged as to allow the escape of the gas unless the stop is shut off entirely.

It has been found, too, that a compressed cylinder or bottle of natural gas will light an economical farm house thirty days when delivered at a pressure of 1,500 pounds.

The trade in compressed natural gas for cutting iron and steel is said to be growing beyond the expectations of the manufacturers.

The Carbo-Hydrogen Co. of America, one of the new companies recently formed to market this, gas found that it cannot supply the market it has created. Among the consumers are the large steel plants and iron companies that have found this gas the cheapest means of cutting heavy castings.

This company has found it practicable to compress gas to a pressure of 1,800 pounds per square inch and is now shipping all its gas at this pressure. An odd fact in the use of this gas is found by the changes to water on burning.

Another firm is engaged in the manufacture of this gas at Elizabethtown, W. Va., and it is thought many others will soon be taking up the work.

VERITABLE HORNET'S
NEST STIRRED UPDefiance Defies Board's
Order to Change Only Auditorium.

DEFIANCE, April 28.—A veritable hornet's nest has been stirred up in Defiance by the issuing of orders from the workshops and factory department of the state industrial commission for the installation of certain appliances at the Citizens Opera House, which contains the only auditorium available for large gatherings.

Manager Wortman says the order means the Opera House will close, as the owners will not expend the money necessary to comply.

The members of the 1916 class of Defiance High school are fretting for fear they will not get a chance to display their costumes at the commencement exercises, which were to be held in the opera house.

Members of the Elks' lodge are sharpening their horns because the order means a postponement of their big minstrel show and members of the cast with their heads full of the lines of the production, would like to stick stilettes into the state board members.

Veterans of the Civil war, who planned to conduct their Memorial Day exercises in the condemned structure, were filled with the martial spirit that enabled them to assist in quelling rebellion.

Church congregations that had planned home talent productions have joined the band of hammer wielders.

At the same time another bomb was dropped in the city in the form of an order condemning the Defiance High school. A meeting of the board of education was held tonight and a town meeting was called to discuss the question of building a new structure.

GOOD WEATHER PUTS
WHEAT PRICE DOWN

CHICAGO, April 28.—Favorable weather northwest and lower Liverpool quotations says a downward swing today to the wheat market here. Initial prices, which ranged from 1/2 decline to a shade advance, with May at $1.13 1/2 to 1.13 and July at $1.14 to 1.14 1/2, were followed by a slight rally, and then a general decline.

Corn turned downward owing to the weakness of wheat. Besides, field conditions were such as to favor plowing and planting. After opening 1/2 to 3/4 @ 1/2 lower, the market continued to recede.

In oats as in other grain, suspicious weather had a bearish effect. Commission houses took almost unanimously to the selling side.

Higher prices on hogs put firmness into provisions. On the bulge, however, signs appeared that packers were unloading.

The wheat close nevertheless was weak, at $1.13 3/8 for May and $1.14 7/8 for July, with the market 1-8c off to 3-8c up, compared with yesterday's finish.

The corn close was heavy at 1-8c to 3-8c @ 1-2c net decline.

The close was: Wheat, May $1.13 3/8; July $1.14 7/8.

Corn, May 76 1-8; July 76 1-2. Oats, May 44 1-2; July 42 7-8.

Pork, May $23.70; July $23.60. Lard, May $12.55; July $12.57. Ribs, May $12.50; July $12.70.

CORN PLANTING IN FULL SWING NOW

Activity Spreads From the South to Canadian Border in April.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The northward advance of crop planting from the extreme southern portions of the country to the Canadian border, accuses farmers to be busily occupied during April.

The National Weather and Crop Bulletin of the weather bureau, in its first issue of the season, indicates how far north the planting of various crops usually advances during April.

In an average season the beginning of corn planting has advanced by April 1 as far northward as southeastern Virginia, central North Carolina and Tennessee, and southern Missouri and Kansas. During April the beginning of planting spreads as far northward as southern Pennsylvania, central Ohio, northern Indiana and Illinois and central Iowa and Nebraska.

Planting of early potatoes by early April has usually spread nearly as far northward as the planting of corn at the close of April and during the month reaches to the extreme northern portion of the United States, except in northern Maine, where the planting is generally later than May 1.

Seeding the spring wheat in an average season is done during March in Iowa, Nebraska and most of South Dakota, and during April the seeding under normal conditions is carried on in all of North Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin and in upper Michigan.

Seeding of spring oats is usually going on in April from southern New York and Pennsylvania, north-central Ohio and northern Indiana, Illinois, Iowa and Nebraska northward nearly to the Canadian border west of the lake region, and to north-central New York and southern Vermont and Maine in the eastern districts.

Cotton planting begins on an average in extreme southern Texas about March 1 and by the close of that month it has advanced in normal seasons as far north as central Texas, Mississippi, Alabama and north-central Georgia. During April planting of cotton is usually carried to the northern limit of the cotton region.

CHARITIES WARD GETS SEED SUPPLY

Chairman S. S. Wheeler of the charity and relief committees of the Chamber of Commerce, yesterday,

MORE DESTRUCTIVE THAN ANY WAR.

Preventable Disease Kills Tens of Thousands Where War Kills One.

At a recent meeting of a mothers' club the head of the health committee made some startling statements in comparing the death rate from causes due to preventable disease to the mortality in the great European war.

She showed that the great majority of human ailments are due either to unwise eating or to incomplete elimination of wastes, and urged that mothers should watch their children and see to it that they did not violate the laws of health.

She called special attention to the value of castor oil as nature's remedy for constipation. The healing properties of castor oil are universally recognized and it doesn't form a habit.

The distasteful features of castor oil have all been eliminated from CASTOR-JELL, which is 94 percent castor oil with a delicious orange flavor added, and there is no trouble in getting either children or adults to take it. On sale at all druggists. Castor Products Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

received 250 packages of seeds from the department of agriculture at Washington, D. C. They were sent upon request of Mr. Wheeler to J. E. Russell, of Sidney, congressman from this district.

Mrs. John Phillips connected with the Chamber of Commerce states that a number of lots were donated by local real estate men and citizens for garden purposes during the summer. Persons desiring to use a lot free of charge during the summer to raise vegetables can obtain one by calling on Mrs. Phillips.

BRITISH ESTIMATES OF LOSSES AT SEA

WASHINGTON, April 28.—British estimates of the European war's toll of merchant ships, given in figures today by the department of commerce, put the number at 736 with a tonnage of more than two million. Allied vessels lost number 538 and neutral 198.

The estimates, made by a British admiral, gave British losses as 410 ships; French 53; Russian 35; Italian 27; Belgian 16, and Japanese 2. This does not include the loss of 237 trawlers by the British, 7 by the French, and two by the Belgians. Norway, with 81 vessels destroyed, leads the neutral nations in losses. Sweden, with 40, is second and Denmark with 28, third. Holland has lost 24 and the United States 7.

WIFE AND MONEY GONE.

Local police have so far been unable to locate the wife of Henry H. Cory, aged Civil War veteran, who complained to the police department yesterday that his wife of a day had disappeared and took with her his roll of $200 and two railroad tickets to Columbus. Cory remained in the city last night and looked in vain for his wife.
